

Dear _____;

As a concerned citizen of the state of California, realizing that all laws passed in the California legislature directly affect me, I have recently reviewed the content of _____.

I have grave concerns and oppose the passage of this legislation. I have come to this conclusion after careful consideration of my second amendment rights to self defense and am encouraging my friends to oppose this legislation as well. I strongly recommend you vote in this manner. Thank you.

Sincerely,