1. Tim N.-P&Ps Revision: There is a revision in the works. One of the new things we want to do is a Members Forum. Members may speak for 3 min. This will not be a time for discussion or debate by other members. Once the P&P revision is done with the Executive Board, it will be taken to the entire Board for review, then to the Safety Committee, then to the General Membership. It's a process but we are trying to clean up some procedures.
